

For ten years, Why? Philosophical Discussions About Everyday Life has brought some of the most important and intriguing philosophical minds into the heart of North Dakota. Via Prairie Public's broadcast radio and podcasts, Why? Radio has connected North Dakotans with tens of thousands of philosophically curious people in more than 100 countries.

Through it all, Why? Radio has shown that everyone can do philosophy, regardless of experience, education, or credentials. True philosophical exploration engages the mind of the community...this community...and we want you to celebrate this milestone with us.
